

I fully support that the strongest possible rules should stay in effect for the NJ Do Not Call List. Individuals signing up for such lists are specifically trying to eliminate ALL unsolicited phone calls, even those from companies they may happened to have done business with in the past.

Thank you.